Definitions

"Individuals with Disabilities" means any person who (1) has a physical or mental impairment that substantially limits one or more major life activities (a); (2) has a record of such impairment or (3) is regarded as having such an impairment. See below for further explanation of this definition:

"Physical or mental impairment" means (I) any physiological disorder or condition, cosmetic disfigurement, or anatomical loss affecting one or more of the following body systems; neurological; musculoskeletal; special sense organs; respiratory; including speech organs; cardiovascular; reproductive; digestive; genito-urinary; hemic & lymphatic; skin; and endocrine; or (II) any mental or psychological disorder, such as intellectual disability, organic brain syndrome, emotional or mental illness, and specific learning disabilities.

The term "physical or mental impairment" includes, but is not limited to, such diseases and conditions as orthopedic, visual, speech, and hearing impairments; cerebral palsy; epilepsy; muscular dystrophy; multiple sclerosis; cancer; heart disease; intellectual disability; emotional illness; drug addiction; and alcoholism.

a A physical or mental impairment that substantially limits one or more "major life activities" means functions including but is not limited to, caring for one's self, performing manual tasks, walking, seeing, hearing, speaking, breathing, learning and working.

Has a "record of such an impairment" means has a history of, or has been classified, or misclassified, as having a mental or physical impairment that substantially limits one or more major life activities.

"Is regarded as having an impairment" means:

Has a physical or mental illness impairment that does not substantially limit major life activities, but that is treated by a recipient as constituting such a limitation.

Has a physical or mental impairment that substantially limits major life activity only as a result of the attitudes of others toward such an impairment; or
Has none of the impairments set forth in paragraph (1) of this definition, but is treated by others as having such an impairment.
